

Mr. Mridul Chakravorty

Head of Human Resource

TCS, Nagpur

Mr. Mridul, branch head HR at TCS Nagpur, have more than 17 years of work experience in the corporate. He presented his view to help the future MBAs understand the dynamics and expectations in the corporates. His talk focused on important areas such as learnings vs execution, interpersonal skills vs team skills etc. He emphasized on the what corporates expect from new MBA graduates. He presented the differences between functional competencies and behavioral competencies and how a future manager can make use both of these competencies to achieve organizational goals.

Date: 25th August 2019

Venue: Seminar Hall, SIBM-Nagpur