

Mr. Udai Raina

Associate Director

EMA Partners International

Mr. Udai is an associate director at EMA Partners International. The firm specializes in recruiting top level managers for various firms and companies. He introduced the concept of positive energy, happiness and career development to MBA batch of 2021. His talk started with the importance of positive energy in everyone's life. He also made the batch realize that how happiness results into successful lifestyle. His talk then progressed into developing careers in the field which gives one happiness and why such career choices are more successful than others. Mr. Udai's talk was very inspiring, motivating and encouraged the batch to pursue career which gives happiness and satisfaction which will lead to a successful career.

Date: 3rd March 2020

Venue: Seminar Hall, SIBM-Nagpur

